We Are Live !!!

We are live streaming every week now at 5pm!!! Just go to: <http://theshrine.org/virtualparish> - to tune in! We are very excited to share Mass with you in this medium!

Coming to Mass? Don't Forget...

Are you coming to Mass? Please don't forget:

- NOT to sing!
- To take your temperature before leaving home
- To wear a mask
- To bring a blanket or chair to sit on for the 11:30 Mass in the Marian Garden, weather permitting
- To be mindful of others and to social distance
- To receive Communion, center aisle only, remove mask only when accepting the Host in your hand, put the Host in your mouth and immediately replace your mask.

Offering at Mass

We will not be collecting from the pews. Please place your envelopes or cash donations into the boxes at the back of the church and front of the chapel on your way into or out of Mass. You can also donate electronically by using the postcards in the pews. Open the camera app on your phone and hold it up to the black and white square on the postcards in the pews. Your phone will use this code to pull up the Vanco website where you can make a secure online donation. This can be a one time donation or you can also set up a recurring donation if you wish. Thank you for considering this safe and secure alternative way of donating!"

Volunteers Needed for Livestream Committee!

[You DON'T need to be tech savvy!] We are thrilled that we now have the capability to livestream our weekend Mass! We are currently livestreaming the 5pm Saturday and plan to shortly add the 11:30am Sunday. It does take one person to manage the livestream process - and so we're forming a new committee ASAP. You do not need to be tech savvy - just tech comfortable! The process will involve using a tablet during Mass (from the sacristy or sitting in a pew) and following a script of buttons to move the camera during the flow of Mass. For any questions or to express interest, please contact Chrissy Kelleher at cmkelleher349@gmail.com. Thank you!

Offerings Needed

Although our church has reopened attendance and giving have dropped. We understand that lots of people are struggling financially, but if at all possible, we could really use your help! We have been relying on a PPP small business loan which has made it possible for us to remain operational. Once that loan is depleted the church will have great difficulty meeting its expenses. We appreciated your thoughtful and kind generosity.

St. Martha - July 29th

Martha was born of noble and wealthy parents, but she is still more illustrious for the hospitality she gave to Christ our Lord. After His Ascension into heaven, she was seized by the Jews, together with her brother and sister, Marcella her handmaid, and Maximin, one of the seventy two disciples of our Lord, who had baptized the whole family, and many other Christians. They were put on board a ship without sails or oars, and left helpless on the open sea, exposed to certain shipwreck. But God guided the ship, and they all arrived safely at Marseilles.

This miracle, together with their preaching, brought the people of Marseilles, of Aix, and of the neighborhood to believe in Christ. Lazarus was made Bishop of Marseilles and Maximin of Aix. Magdalen, who was accustomed to devote herself to prayer and to sit at our Lord's feet, in order to enjoy the better part which she had chosen, that is, contemplation of the joys of heaven, retired into a deserted cave on a very high mountain. There she lived for thirty years, separated from all human intercourse; and every day she was carried to heaven by the angels to hear their songs of praise.

But Martha, after having won the love and admiration of the people of Marseilles by the sanctity of her life and her wonderful charity, withdrew in the company of several virtuous women to a spot remote from men, where she lived for a long time, greatly renowned for her piety and prudence. She foretold her death long before it occurred; and at length, famous for miracles, she passed to our Lord on the fourth of the Kalends of August. Her body which lies at Tarascon is held in great veneration.
