Coming to Mass? Don't Forget...

Are you coming to Mass? Please don't forget:

- NOT to sing!
- To take your temperature before leaving home
- To wear a mask
- To bring a blanket or chair to sit on for the 11:30 Mass in the Marian Garden, weather permitting
- To be mindful of others and to social distance
- To receive Communion, center aisle only, remove mask only when accepting the Host in your hand, put the Host in your mouth and immediately replace your mask.

Offering at Mass

We will not be collecting from the pews. Please place your envelopes or cash donations into the boxes at the back of the church and front of the chapel on your way into or out of Mass. You can also donate electronically by using the postcards in the pews. Open the camera app on your phone and hold it up to the black and white square on the postcards in the pews. Your phone will use this code to pull up the Vanco website where you can make a secure online donation. This can be a one time donation or you can also set up a recurring donation if you wish. Thank you for considering this safe and secure alternative way of donating!"

2nd Collections August

Aug 2 - Church Restoration
Aug 9 - Black and Indian Missions

We Are Live !!!

Volunteers Needed for Livestream Committee!

[You DON'T need to be tech savvy!] We are thrilled that we now have the capability to livestream our weekend Mass! We are currently livestreaming the 5pm Saturday and plan to shortly add the 11:30am Sunday. It does take one person to manage the livestream process - and so we're forming a new committee ASAP. You do not need to be tech savvy - just tech comfortable! The process will involve using a tablet during Mass (from the sacristy or sitting in a pew) and following a script of buttons to move the camera during the flow of Mass. For any questions or to express interest, please contact Chrissy Kelleher at cmkelleher349@gmail.com. Thank you!

Transfiguration - August 6th

Our divine Redeemer, being in Galilee about a year before His sacred Passion, took with him St. Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, Sts. James and John, and led them to a retired mountain. Tradition assures us that this was Mount Thabor, which is exceedingly high and beautiful, and was anciently covered with green trees and shrubs, and was very fruitful. It rises something like a sugar-loaf, in a vast plain in the middle of Galilee. This was the place in which the Man-God appeared in His glory.

Whilst Jesus prayed, he suffered that glory which was always due to his sacred humility, and of which, for our sake, He deprived it, to diffuse a ray over His whole body. His face was altered and shone as the sun, and his garments became white as snow. Moses and Elias were seen by the three apostles in his company on this occasion, and were heard discoursing with him of the death which he was to suffer in Jerusalem.

The three apostles were wonderfully delighted with this glorious vision, and St. Peter cried out to Christ, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three tents: one for thee, one for Moses, and one for Elias" Whilst St. Peter was speaking, there came, on a sudden, a bright shining cloud from heaven, an emblem of the presence of God's majesty, and from out of this cloud was heard a voice which said, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him" The apostles that were present, upon hearing this voice, were seized with a sudden fear, and fell upon the ground; but Jesus, going to them, touched them, and bade them to rise. They immediately did so, and saw no one but Jesus standing in his ordinary state.

This vision happened in the night. As they went down the mountain early the next morning, Jesus bade them not to tell any one what they had seen till he should be risen from the dead.
