August Casserole Collection

The Social Justice Organization (SJO) will be collecting casseroles and Family Size Stouffers Mac and Cheese. Pans will be available outside after Masses on the weekends of August 15-16 and August 22-23 with a return to the Undercroft Kitchen on the weekend of August 29-30. We will also have a volunteer available on Saturday August 22 from 10-12 (noon) for those who may still not be attending Mass, so they can pick up pans and recipes. Thanks so much for your generosity!

Mass Attendance Limits

Given the mayor's order limiting attendance in any indoor space to 25% of capacity (previously the requirement was 33%), please be advised if you come to mass to be prepared and open to being asked to move to the undercroft, where the mass will be broadcast on the tv, or if you choose, you can come prepared to sit outside in the garden. Communion will be brought to those in both locations. The wearing of masks indoors for services is still required. Thank you for your cooperation, as we continue to make the services available to those who feel free to attend and also do everything to keep everyone safe. - Fr. Au

Offering at Mass

We will not be collecting from the pews. Please place your envelopes or cash donations into the boxes at the back of the church and front of the chapel on your way into or out of Mass. You can also donate electronically by using the postcards in the pews. Open the camera app on your phone and hold it up to the black and white square on the postcards in the pews. Your phone will use this code to pull up the Vanco website where you can make a secure online donation. This can be a one time donation or you can also set up a recurring donation if you wish. Thank you for considering this safe and secure alternative way of donating!"

St. Hyacinth - August 17th

According to the 1962 Missal of St. John XXIII the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite, today is the feast of St. Hyacinth, a canon of Krakow, who joined the Dominican Order in Rome during the lifetime of the founder, in about the year 1217.

He returned to Krakow with the first band of Dominican missionaries. The newcomers spread over all the northern countries into Russia, the Balkans, Prussia and Lithuania. St. Hyacinth preached the crusade against the Prussians. He died on the feast of the Assumption, 1257.

Today in Ireland is the Memorial of Our Lady of Knock, celebrating the apparition of Our Lady, St. Joseph, St. John the Evangelist, a Lamb and cross on an altar on the wall of the parish church in the village of Knock in County Mayo on August 21, 1879.

While a canon at the cathedral of Cracow, Hyacinth journeyed to Rome, was impressed by the preaching and miracles of St. Dominic, and from the hand of Dominic himself received the habit of the newly-founded Order. Upon returning to his native land (1219), he established monasteries of his Order beyond the Alps at Friesach, Prague, Olmiitz, and Cracow.

From the Breviary we have this miracle. With three companions Hyacinth had arrived at the banks of the river Weichsel during their journey to Vischegrad, where they were expected to preach. But the waters had risen so high and had become so violent that no ferryman dared to cross. The saint took his mantle, spread it out before him, and with his companions rode across the raging waters. After saying his Office for the day, he died in 1257 with these words on his lips: "Into Your hands, Lord, I rest my spirit!" - Excerpted from The Church's Year of Grace, Pius Parsch.
