Given the mayor's order limiting attendance in any indoor space to 25% of capacity (previously the requirement was 33%), please be advised if you come to mass to be prepared and open to being asked to move to the undercroft, where the mass will be broadcast on the tv, or if you choose, you can come prepared to sit outside in the garden. Commentary on the Readings for the 13th Sunday after Pentecost

"Were not the ten (lepers) made clean? Where are the (other) nine" (Gospel)?

Leprosy, dread disease, meant exile "afar off" as a castout from home and city. Mankind, rejecting Divine Life, became leprous, cast out from Eden here, from heaven hereafter.

How amazing, then, that God should make a "covenant" with man as though he were His equal (Epistle)! What is this "covenant?" By it God bestows on all "those who believe" in Jesus the right to inherit His Life, promised to Abraham; not to those who look merely to "the Law" of Moses.

Be not content, as were "the nine," with mere health of body but with the "increase of faith, hope and charity" (PRAYER). As with the lepers, so our prayer is: "Have regard, O Lord, to Thy covenant, and forsake not . . . Thy poor . . . (do not) cast us off" (Introit).
